

Suzuki DRZ400E and DR650 Bonus Enduro Kit

Suzuki's DR-Z400E and DR650SE are synonymous with words like bullet-proof, trusty and tough. The fact that these proven warriors continue to be a hit with Aussie riders year after year solidifies their legendary status.

For a limited time, Suzuki is giving customers extra value on these Aussie outback legends offering rugged and practicable enduro accessory kits specific to each model.

DR-Z400E customers will be better equipped to brave the elements with the bonus enduro kit ($500 value) consisting of a Genuine Suzuki accessory alloy bash plate, radiator guards, muffler end cap and a set of Barkbuster Ego full protection handguards.

The mandatories will be covered for DR650SE customers building their ultimate adventure machine with the bonus enduro kit ($450 value) consisting of a Genuine Suzuki accessory alloy bash plate, rear rack and a set of Barkbuster VPS handguards.
